

What's That Look On Your Face?: All About Faces and Feelings

By Catherine S. Snodgrass

Autism Asperger Publishing Co. AAPC, 2008. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Imagine spending a year in middle school without being able to talk with friends or understand the Recognizing and interpreting facial expressions and the feelings they represent poses great challenges for children with language and communication difficulties, including those with an autism spectrum disorder. This strikingly illustrated book helps young readers link faces to feelings by presenting situations they can all relate to. Each page spread is devoted to a feeling expressed through an exaggerated facial expression accompanied by a short poem that further elaborates on the expression to reinforce its meaning. This is a book particularly for parents, general and special educators (Gr 3-5), and OT's. The Foreword by Diane Twatchman-Cullen includes activities designed to help children develop the skills necessary to recognize common facial expressions using the accompanying poster-size chart of the twelve basic feelings covered. A creative and rhythmical tour of basic feelings, facial expressions, and gestures with a foreword by Dr. Diane Twachtman-Cullen that will bring this resource to life. Catherine S. Snodgrass has the talent to address the complexity of emotions with disarming simplicity and charm. The result is a sure winner among educational resources....

READ ONLINE
[1.69 MB]

Reviews

These kinds of publication is everything and made me hunting ahead of time and more. I have got read through and i also am confident that i am going to gonna study yet again yet again later on. Its been printed in an extremely basic way in fact it is only after i finished reading this pdf in which in fact transformed me, alter the way i believe.

-- Cristina Koepp

This is the very best publication we have read through right up until now. It is one of the most incredible book we have read through. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Miss Celia Volkman