A moment had passed and they mourned her dead: --I chuckled with might and with main! The Three. With bonds that mortals can wrench not, We have choked three spirits yell. With fires that water can quench not, We have yoked three souls to Hell! Chorus. Then away, come away from the glare of the day, And the gleams from the beams of the moon; We will join in a dance and our quick feet will prance In the sway of a gay rigadoon! Lip to lip, let us trip, with no sound as we slip, But the swirl of the whirl of our wings, Till the lark shall prolong his horrible song In the gray of the day that he brings. Charles R. Austin. Wanted. Two arms around my neck entwine, A smooth cheek closely presses mine; I know what such caresses mean And in my chair I backward lean. What is it, daughter mine, I say, What is it that you want to-day? Some more new dresses, or a hat? No, dear papa, it isn't that. I hope it isn't laces then? You dear old dad just guess again. More diamonds or perhaps a pearl. No? Then what do you want, my girl? I don't want anything; you see It's Tom, this time, and he wants me. Siobud. That Old Green Bag of Ham s. The shifting scenes of College life Bring many a vain regret, For friendly...
